The Delusions of Christians in Africa

In the year 1408 H, there were more than 100,000 Christian "preachers" in Africa and their slogan was: "All of Africa will be Christian by the year 2000". Today, 21 years after the date they set to make the whole of Africa Christian, the Christians suffer an unmatched hell at the hands of the soldiers of the Khilafah and its heroes: the fire of jihad is lit and the flame of conquests is burning, and the Christian priests, masses and militiamen are between dead and hunted. The Christian kuffar have found themselves in a state they have not witnessed for the past two centuries or more, and Allah is the commander before and after.

So how were they and what changed? Where did all their efforts in preaching Christianity end up, and where are the massive budgets they spent? Where are their dreamy conferences and deluded conspiracies which they wove? They were destroyed and all in vain when the reformers renewed the invitation to tawhid in the lives of Muslims, and declared jihad for the sake of Allah, and their voices rose with praise to Allah.

This comes after long decades of shirk, bid'ah and deviations, and the fall of the ruling of Shari'ah in Africa due to the Crusader French, Portuguese and Spanish conquests and those of other countries of Crusader Europe, and the years of hunger and weakness, within which the malevolent Christians sought to take Muslims from their religion, just as Allah said: "They will not cease to fight you until they turn you back from your religion, if they can" (Al-Baqarah: 217).

To achieve their malicious goals, the Christians used all kinds of evil ways, sending missions and expeditions, and their methods varied between oppression and coercion, or temptation and allurement, or by teaching in their schools of evil - which remains spreading evil to this day - or under the cover of aid and medication, until they started in some African countries not to provide medication unless the patient kneels and asks Christ to heal them!

They also exploited the poverty of the people to take them away from their religion in exchange for food crumbs. They intensified their efforts, spending fortunes and organizing conferences and meetings, all with the goal to turn Africa into a purely Christian continent! Even the Crusader taghut "Paulus the second" confirmed that in a speech he gave in the "Rome Conference," in front of a delegation of African bishops: "You will have a Christian church from you and for you, and it is time for Africa to stand up and do its godly mission, and you bishops are holding a great responsibility, which is to turn all of Africa Christian".

These Christian campaigns came along with military campaigns and a Crusader conquest of the countries of Muslims, as well as espionage operations under the cover of non-profit organizations.

Among their goals in those campaigns was to disperse Muslims and dismantle their unity on the basis of nationalities and fake borders, and one of their bishops testifies to this saying: "Christianity has a major role in breaking the strength of Muslim unity .. until Christianity is able to penetrate deep among the Muslims".

When the Christianity campaign in Africa was at its peak , and the Muslims suffered tragedies, the tawaghit ruling other Muslim countries kept silent, and in many cases even supported the Crusader countries.

The Ummah of Islam went through a time where the biggest effort put to warn of the danger of the Christian preachers was a written book, or a solid speech denouncing the crimes of the Christians. The best of cases are those who tried to gather donations and charity for some poor Muslims to rival the Christians in their projects.

But goodness started spreading after the words of the renewing Imam Shaykh Muhammad bin Abdul-Wahab (may Allah have mercy on him) started to shine in the Arabian Peninsula - words which he extracted from the Book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Prophet PBUH. This blessed invitation had a major effect in spreading tawhid among the people of Africa, and countering the conspiracies of the Christians in it, where many people started studying the correct doctrine which protects their religion from waste, deviations, and myths and Bid'ah, and showed them clearly the path of glory and the way of salvation which Allah commanded them to follow. This was also helped by the strong relation Ahlus-Sunnah in Africa had with the generous Qur'an and how attached they were to it. Truly, anywhere the Book of Allah is recited and there are calls to apply what it contains, success is there. It was a fertile land which allowed the Muslims in Africa to join the Khilafah rapidly, and announce their bay'ah to the Islamic State by the grace from Allah. Then the state of Muslims changed there after taking the path of jihad. They launched a vicious war against the Christians, which broke their necks, burned their villages, and made them taste all forms of torture and terror, and with that Africa entered a new state to counter the greed of Christians and fight the armies protecting them.

The Muslims moved from a state of weakness to conquering the villages and military bases of the murtaddin and Christians and their militias, and dispersing their groups, and that was crowned with what Allah granted His worshipers of applying His Shari'ah in the land they controlled. All of this are beams of glad tidings for the Ummah of Islam, telling of the shining light of a bright dawn, and it is only the result of the graces from Allah, then the patience of the soldiers of Khilafah - as we think of them - and following the causes of victory and empowerment. Allah said: "O you who believe! If you support Allah, He will support you, and will strengthen your foothold" (Muhammad: 7).

These events showed the lowliness of the Arab tawaghit and the Gulf murtaddin, who did not move for the tragedies of Muslims in Africa nor did they care for them as long as the campaigns of preaching Christianity and killing and displacement lasted. However, today they are moving to support their brothers the murtaddin and Christians against the mujahidin by supporting their military campaigns and providing the armies of the African alliance with money and vehicles, which became - with grace and planning from Allah - ghanimah in the hands of His allies the mujahidin, so it would be gear for the battles to come, by the permission of Allah.

Let the Christian kuffar know that their time of coercion against Muslims in Africa has gone with no return - Allah willing - after the Islamic State was established and its soldiers spread in multiple areas in the land of Africa. This is a great good and an advanced stage of the conflict between the Ummah of Islam and the nation of the cross. What happened in the regions and villages of the Wilayat of West and Central Africa is moving towards other countries which are still under the influence of the Christians and their persecution, and it is not difficult for Allah.

The Muslims in all of Africa must take this path - "a clear doctrine and jihad for the sake of Allah", as it will lead to the best outcome, by Allah's permission. Allah said: "If those who disbelieve had fought you, they would have turned back and fled, then found neither protector nor helper. It is the Way of Allah, ongoing since the past. You will never find any change in the Way of Allah" (Al-Fath: 23-22). All praise is due to Allah, the Lord of all creation.
